1. Korean after WW2
After WWII, Korea was __________________ in _______________
   • The northern half became was _______________
   • While the southern half became was _______________

2. North Korea Invades
In 1950, North Korea used _______________-made _______________ and _______________ to invade South Korea.
The South Korean government asked for help.
The _______________ demanded that the newly created _______________ _______________ come to the aid of South Korea.

3. UN Force Pushes Back
A _______________ _______________ made up of 32 countries was sent to Korea.
   • This force included _______________ _______________
The UN force almost captured all of North Korea!
This is a threat, Communist _______________ came to the aid of the North Koreans

4. How did it “end”
In 1953, an _______________ was signed, and _______________ _______________ _______________ between the North and the South.
No treaty was signed, so the two countries are _______________ _______________ at war with each other to this day.

5. Aftermath
Canadian troops were asked to stay in Korea for _______________ to help maintain the uneasy truce.
Through this _______________ _______________ _______________ the UN ensured the independence of South Korea.

6. Why is the Korean War significant for Canada?
It showed that Canada _______________ the _______________ and was _______________ to _______________ to achieve its goals.
It reinforced Canada’s position as _______________ _______________
7. Significance for the UN
It showed that members were willing to take ______________ action when required.
The UN is able to use other ______________ to enforce its will
The UN keeps the peace with a ______________ ______________

8. The Forgotten War
Canada sent over ______________ troops to fight in Korea.
There were 1,558 Canadian casualties including ______________
______________.
Korea has often been described at “The ______________ ______________” because most Canadians are not as familiar with the history of the war as the Canadian contributions in two world wars.

9. The Demilitarized Zone today
What do you notice about the Google Earth image? ______________________________

10. Going to North Korea
There was one North Korean guard outside of the embassy who made a call on a walkietalkie when some of the tourists started walking around
At which point the ______________ ______________ told us we all needed to line up right away and stop moving.
Then we were led inside one of the blue buildings, which once inside it’s bullet proof walls you can ______________ ______________ in North Korea.

11. In North Korea
Apparently guards that are stationed at the DMZ/JSA have to meet a certain ______________ ______________ and must be trained in 7 different martial arts.
(I’m not sure of the validity of this, but seemed pretty intense).

12. Bridge of No Return
You can’t walk along this bridge and we were only allowed to take pictures of it from inside the bus.
It was used for ______________ ______________ at the end of the Korean War in 1953.

13. Peace Village
North Korea created a ______________ ______________ to try and lure SK people
The SK and NK were in competition over who could raise the ______________
______________
The NK made the largest and tallest flag ever. Seriously, it's so big that it doesn't seem real.

14. The DMZ Overall
Going to the DMZ was incredibly interesting and ______________. The “peace town” is this vast, sad reminder of how ______________, we ______________ about what's in that country and what life is like for the people there.
Overall: ______________, ______________, and ______________. There's so much we don't know about North Korea

15. Suez Crisis
Canada makes a name for itself as a ______________ ______________

16. A Canadian Success
In 1956, a crisis occurred in the Middle East when ______________ ______________ seized control of the Suez Canal from a ______________ / ______________ ______________
The Suez Canal was an important waterway connecting the Mediterranean and the Red Sea to the Indian ocean.
When President Nasser of Egypt decided to take control of the canal; this act meant a ______________ ______________ for the French and British owners.
70% of the products on this route are oil related

17. USSR and Egypt
In response to this attack, the ______________ ______________ supported the countries of Iraq, Syria, and Egypt.
When the Soviet Union declared its support for Egypt, the world was once again faced with the possibility of a ______________ ______________.

18. USA and Israel
______________ forces agreed to ______________ ______________ in order to capture the canal.
The _______________ _______________, _______________ _______________ and _______________ supported Israel which in turn caused the Soviet Union to react.

19. Lester B Pearson
Lester Pearson, Canada’s secretary of state for _______________ _______________ came up with a strategic plan. It was decided that a special UN _______________ _______________ would patrol the border areas.

20. United Nations Emergency Force
Pearson suggested forming a United Nations Emergency Force (UNEF) that would be _______________ _______________. Kept them apart while a settlement was worked out.

21. Canada’s Role
Canada sent over 800 soldiers and the UNEF force grew to about _______________. Lester Pearson was awarded the Noble Peace Prize for his resolution of the Suez Crisis.

22. Significance for Canada
Canada becomes recognized as an _______________ _______________ force. Canada becomes a _______________ _______________ because it contributes to international relations but not as big as the USSR or USA.

23. Pearson Becomes PM
Lester Pearson became _______________ _______________ in 1963. Pearson’s values were based on three principals:

1. _______________ creates fear and fear is an enemy of peace.
2. Hunger and poverty are danger to peace.
3. Human begins make effo _______________ for _______________ very _______________.